'Fiddlers Feast' has grown from humble beginnings at the Tamworth Country Music Festival in 1996 into Australia's Premier Fiddle Band. "a powerhouse of Australian Celtic music that flies down bush tracks, over blue mountains and zips down the Australian city highways".

The Fiddlers have performed at festivals nationally and in Europe (including Festival InterCeltique, Lorient, 2006), Hong Kong and Japan and have appeared on stage with artists as diverse as Aussie legend John Williamson, piano genius David Helfcott, Canadian fiddler Dominique Dupuis, Irish accordionist Sharon Shannon, Andy Irvine and Donal Lunny's Mozaik, US banjo whiz Allison Brown and heaps of others. Fiddlers Feast is planning to return to Europe in the northern summer of 2007 with invites from festivals in France and England as well as a possible return visit to the Festival Interceltique, Lorient in Brittany.

Their new album, FRENZEE, is a rip-roaring collection of all sorts of fiddling from Country to tongue-in-cheek classical, from twisted jazz tracks to rock and reel with a plethora of weird and wonderful music and guests from all parts of the harmonic spectrum. .

"Fiddlers Feast keep raising the bar - FRENZEE is another great release."
(Raymond Phillips, Country Harvest)

"FRENZEE is brilliant!! It will be receiving a lot of airplay because it fits into so many categories - jazz, classical, easy listening, even folk. A track that stood out for me was 'Eine Kleine Nutmusik' - the treatment is superbly tongue in cheek and a sound for sore ears. I also love 'Down Under Sakura Otter's Holt', 'How High the Moon', 'Someday My Prince Will Come' and will be listening to all tracks many times. I will do all I can to spread the word!"
(Bob Cady, Highland FM).

"Great album, quite an eclectic mixture - looking forward to giving it some welly!"
(Julie Cavanagh, The Folk Show)
